Prayer for believers to embrace their responsibility to minister the Word and Existence of God to unbelievers (as led by the Holy Spirit) is essential. People are at different levels of belief and unbelief. Atheists do not believe in God at all and, to help them, we have to begin with Bible basics and the supernatural. Then there are those who believe in a god but not the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. They may be part of a religion or a cult or be unaffiliated, but the god in which they believe is of a totally different character than the one true God. Then there are those who believe in the one true God but not that Yeshua is the son of God – the fullness of the deity made flesh – the Messiah. Rabbinical Jews fall in this category. Bringing each person to his next level of belief is what Scripture refers to as “the harvest,” and is the work of evangelism which is the responsibility of us all. But nothing happens without the Holy Spirit’s intervention, so we must pray for both the harvest and for fellow workers to bring it in.
